

Fuencaliente de La Palma

Fuente de Los Roques Recreational Area

English edition

Updated on 7 September 2026

At more than 1000 metres of altitude and set on the famous “Ruta de Los Volcanes” (Route of the Volcanoes), this recreational area is surrounded by a great blanket of Canary Island pines alongside arid volcanic terrain.

The humble fountain quenches the thirst of the many visitors who decide to spend some pleasant moments here, with all the basic infrastructure at hand.

ACCESS:

By car. The turn-off to the forest track that leads to the recreational area is 1 km from Los Canarios, following the LP-2 road towards Santa Cruz de la Palma, then along the track to Pino de la Virgen (5 km to the recreational area). A four-wheel-drive vehicle is recommended and, depending on the time of year, may be absolutely essential.

Protection status: Cumbre Vieja and Teneguía Natural Park.
