

Fuencaliente de La Palma

Pino de la Virgen

English edition

Updated on 7 September 2026

In the middle of the pine forest, 5 km from Los Canarios, the legendary pine tree of La Virgen stands tall. Its tea-wood heart oozes the sap that gives it life and jealously guards the Virgin. The branches, like arms, protect the small image celebrated by the faithful in a pilgrimage on the second Sunday of August. It is reached along the dirt track that leads us into this open forest scented with resin. It has a parking area, toilets, tables and benches.
