Updated on 10 September 2026

Sculptures and monuments in streets, parks, viewpoints and along the coast. The works recall the trades and traditions of the municipality.

Discover the route

Sculptures and monuments in streets, parks, viewpoints and on the coast that recall the trades, traditions and landscapes of the municipality. You will find El Caminante, the bronze hiker the Town Council placed next to the church of San Antonio Abad in 2015, on the GR 131; the barrel of the Monument to the Winegrower at the Bodegas Teneguía roundabout; the eagle carved in Canary pine by Juan Manuel Hernández Lorenzo, “Juanito”, in La Fajana park; the recycled-art works by Gustavo Díaz at Puntalarga and at the new Las Indias Viewpoint; and the Caballos Fuscós by Manuel Pereda de Castro, installed in 2020 at the Los Quemados roundabout. See the page of each piece for its author and the details available.
